

About Athens Country Club

Situated among the beautiful rolling hills of Southeastern Ohio, the Athens Country Club offers a unique golf experience, outdoor pool, bathhouse, and concession area. The clubhouse provides a lounge and dining in both casual and formal settings. It also has a beautiful deck overlooking the ninth hole.

The Athens Country Club was founded in 1921 and enhanced by renowned golf course architect Donald Ross in 1925. The 6,280-yard nine-hole course is where Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus first played together in 1958 on Dow Finsterwald Day.

In addition to the scenic and challenging course, the club offers social events, fine and casual dining, a swimming pool for the family, a driving range, a Pro Shop, meeting and banquet space, and opportunities for golf clinics and lessons, including a ladies clinic and a junior clinic. The club also provides numerous golf scrambles, including couples golf, a member-guest tournament, a Rally for the Cure, and night golf.

The club's golf pro and manager, Greg Moore, is available for private lessons and great advice on how to fine-tune your game!

The Clubhouse

The ACC clubhouse is newly renovated, offering spaces that better serve the contemporary needs of club members and the community of Athens. Located atop a hill overlooking the course, the current clubhouse offers splendid vistas of the golf course and the hills beyond.

The clubhouse serves as the center of club activities and offers something for every member of the family. The lounge, featuring a big screen TV, makes even rainy days enjoyable at the club. Or you can relax with your favorite drink and watch golfers finish up on the ninth hole from the clubhouse's panoramic windows or the spacious deck. Finally, with fine dining available in both a formal and a casual atmosphere, the clubhouse is a perfect destination for any occasion.

To ensure that you get the best service available while at the club, the Athens Country Club employs a full-time Chef, trained bartender and professional wait staff that are ready to serve you. We are proud to offer our members a beautiful view, quality food and premier service, all with a touch of class.

Finally, with social events such as The Christmas Dance, New Year's Eve celebration, President's Ball and more, the Athens Country Club is a great place to meet new people and socialize with old friends. The clubhouse is also a popular meeting spot for many community organizations and social groups.
